Square Meal review of MeLoveSushi:

On the former site of Globe restaurant & next door to the Hampstead Theatre comes this new, cutely named Japanese restaurant & bar. The format is as simple as the blond-wood furnishings: choose from a menu of sushi rolls, nigiri, tempura & hot dishes, order at the counter & 10 minutes later the food is delivered by eager-to-please staff. It's keenly priced stuff with mixed sashimi platters (eight slices of pert fish) clocking in at £7.50, oversized bowls of rice & chicken teriyaki or barbecued eel for under a tenner plus a few pricier options such as miso-marinated black cod. Upstairs is an attractive red-tinged bar serving saké-based cocktails & a condensed menu from the restaurant below. Wine & Champagne served by the glass only.
